

Transformation Delivery

Explore an Advisory career within this team of 500+ professionals nationwide

What we do

We help our clients navigate complex and transformative journeys by empowering them to maximize the value created through their business decisions while minimizing disruption and creating efficiencies.

How we deliver

Working with impacted geographies, functions, or departments of our clients, we:

- Assess the impacts to people, processes, and technologies so that we can create roadmaps for success
- Create accountabilities and timelines for leadership teams to execute a transformation
- Utilize robust data and analytics to develop informed business cases and set realistic growth targets
- Move from the designing of ideas and future possibilities to the realistic execution of them

Where we've made an impact

We assist our clients with:

- Post-merger or acquisition integration
- Technology implementations
- Organizational redesigns
- Implementing new processes or ways of working
- Establishing internal transformation capabilities
- Creating healthier cultures

Who we hire

Candidates pursuing a bachelor's or master's degree in business, organizational psychology, operations, strategy, or a related field

Ways we work

We work in a team setting, most often partnering with other KPMG Advisory groups to best serve clients. Our work also provides significant opportunities to travel on-site to client locations.

In today's constantly evolving marketplace, organizational agility is a key differentiator for our clients. Our team not only helps clients navigate the volatility, but also become stronger, smarter, and more ready to succeed.
