Eva Davis serves on the Executive Committee of the international law firm of Winston & Strawn. Recognized in Best Lawyers in America and ranked in Chambers, Eva is a “savvy dealmaker” who works with some of the most active private equity funds in the country. With over 20 years of experience, Eva provides “astute commercial advice” alongside her strategic M&A counseling when negotiating on behalf of US and global public and private companies, boards of directors and private equity funds involving their most significant transactional matters.

Eva Davis also serves as Chair of the Global Transactions Department and concentrates on U.S. and cross-border complex business transactions with a particular focus on mergers and acquisitions and private equity. As an advisor to strategics and private equity funds and their portfolio companies, she has counseled domestic and international clients in public and private M&A transactions, public and private debt and equity financing transactions, including initial public offerings, and distressed sales and investments in and out of bankruptcy. Eva has also represented public companies and their boards of directors and special committees in connection with enterprise-transformative business opportunities and legal challenges, as well as providing corporate governance advice.

Eva has served as lead deal counsel and negotiated and completed transactions in a wide variety of industries, including aerospace, automotive, business and financial services, consumer products, energy, entertainment, industrials and manufacturing, medical devices, pharmaceutical, retail, semiconductor, software, technology and telecommunications.

Eva is a frequent lecturer and author on topics relating to private equity, M&A, leadership and diversity. Eva is active in the community where she serves on several boards, including as Chairwoman of the Regional Board of Directors of Read to a Child.

Eva regularly uses her network to promote other women internally within their organizations and externally by identifying new roles and opportunities within the C-suite and on public and private company boards of directors.

Eva graduated cum laude from Harvard Law School and summa cum laude from Duke University where she double majored in Economics and Political Science and was a member of Phi Beta Kappa.
